After short addresses by Hon. S. M. Robertson, R. I. Miller and Rev. R. A. Foster the following preamble and resolutions were read and unanimously adopted:

It is no ordinary occasion which calls us together. That was no ordinary light that went out in the gray mist of early dawn. It was no ordinary life that has so suddenly and strangely come down to

To those of us who knew his career, the story of his splendid accomplishments praising Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and has more than ordinary significance, and the heart-breaking tragedy of his sud den taking-off, a profound meaning. History furnishes but few examples like this, none in our State that can exalt him in the sublime usefulness of his career. His patriotism was so lofty that one can Always remember that the man who not measure it by the hour. No taint of gain ever touched his hand; no surrender of principle ever marred the colors of the J. R. Farrior's drug store. banner he bore. In his life every element of success was materialized, an energy as untiring as the tides of the sea; a courage like the eagle's that gazes with eye undimed upon the glare of the noonday sun; a genius so comprehensive that it grasped with equal facility the smaller detail as well as the broadest of human issues; and above all, a patriotism of pure, theroic unsectionalism, drawing its inspiration from the sacred fountain-head of American liberty, and spreading its benign influence wherever the Constitution is obeyed and the rights of mankind respected.

And thus he worked in the fore-front until death overtook him. In this hour of mourning how heavily do we feel his loss. The great purpose of his life was just planned out; the certainty of its fulfillment rested with him.

THE SURPRISE OF ALL.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. Kings New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it; free trial bottles at
